HAND-DELIVERY/US MAIL

Dear Dr. Meng:

Thank you very much for taking the time to meet with me, Ms. Hamilton, Mr. Warren, and Ms. Goldman on Wednesday February 1, 2006. As you are aware, the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld is outside counsel for the University of Houston, and the University is therefore our client. Because Akin Gump and I represent the University, we cannot represent you or Pei-Hor.

The purpose of setting up our meeting of February 1, 2006, was to gain an initial understanding of your claim of inventorship of the Chu "YBCO" patent. (Serial No. 07/032,041). We requested that the meeting adjourn before the discussion became overly involved because, as attorneys for the University, we concluded that your claim of inventorship could be adverse to the University. As we stated at the conclusion of our meeting, we recommend that you immediately seek the advice of your own attorney. While you can retain any attorney you wish, as long as the attorney does not represent the University of Houston, we recommend that you engage an attorney who specializes in Intellectual Property Law (patent law) to fully advise you of your rights. A list of attorneys specializing in IP (patent) law is available through the Houston Lawyer Referral Service at 713.237.9429. Also, the website of the Houston Intellectual Property Law Association ("HIPLA") at www.HIPLA.org contains a list of attorneys who specialize in the inventorship issues of concern.

If you are considering proceeding with your claim of inventorship without an attorney, the University and the firm recommend that you at least consult an attorney to be certain you understand your rights before making that decision.

As you can understand, this is an important issue to the University as well as to you. Therefore, the University intends to make a fair and complete investigation of your claims, but neither the University nor its attorneys can represent your interests during this investigation. We do need to proceed diligently with this investigation. Therefore, we want to obtain from your attorney, if you wish to engage one, or you, any information you have that relates to your claim of inventorship. Please have your attorney contact me as soon as possible or, if you choose to
